4 I work hard to go further and faster. My hobby means I get wet. _____

5 My hobby is very relaxing. I just sit and watch from my comfortable chair. _____

Unit 3 Our World

Lesson 1: Creatures in Our World

A Choose the correct verb to complete each sentence.

bite	fly	grow	hunt	produce

1 A bat is not a bird, but it can _____ like a bird.

2 Owls _____ and kill small animals at night.

3 If you put your foot on a snake, it will _____ you.

4 Cows and goats _____ milk.

5 Elephants _____ very big, but it takes many years.

B Study the spelling rule and write the comparative forms of these adjectives.

1 wet	4 long	7 near
2 thin	5 noisy	8 fit
3 sad	6 friendly	9 heavy

Spelling rule: final consonants d, g, n, t

Single consonants after single vowels are doubled when an ending is added.

Example:
*big → bigger → biggest
*hot → hotter → hottest
But *clean → cleaner → cleanest (because ea is not a single vowel)

Remember: final y usually changes to i, e.g., dry → drier

C Write the comparative forms of these adjectives in the correct places in the table.

cheap dangerous ugly expensive interesting happy careful tidy

quieter	more beautiful

D Write these sentences differently so that they mean the same thing.

Example: An elephant is bigger than a giraffe.

A giraffe is not as big as an elephant.

A giraffe is smaller than an elephant.

1 A bear is not as fast as a lion.

2 In the desert, a camel is more useful than a horse.

3 Cows are bigger than goats.

E Study the language box below. Then discuss the questions in Exercise F.

Superlative forms of adjectives: add est or most

The rules for superlatives are the same as those for the comparatives.

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
fast	faster	fastest
useful	more useful	most useful beautiful	more beautiful	most beautiful

F Read the following sentences and discuss in pairs.

1 What's the most useful farm animal?

2 What's the most useful insect?

3 What's the most beautiful place in Libya?

Lesson 2: Our Growing World

A Write the headlines on page 38 of your Course Book as sentences in column 1.

	What is happening?	Rate of change	Cause of change
1	People are growing taller.	2 cm _____	_____
2	People _____	_____	_____

Lesson 3: I hate spiders!

A Choose suitable sentences to answer the speaker.

I love chocolates. _____

I don't like horror stories. _____

I'm not afraid of rats. _____

My mother is afraid of dogs. _____

My favourite stories are comedies. _____

Neither do I.	Neither am I.	So do I.	So am I.
I don't.	I am.	I don't mind them.

B Practise saying the sentences.

C Complete the sentences so that they are true.

1 If there were no spiders in the world, Imad _____ happy.

a would be b wouldn't be

2 If there were no spiders, _____.

a there would be fewer mosquitoes b there would be more mosquitoes

1 If there was a spider on my desk now, _____

2 If my friend had a pet monkey, _____

3 If we didn't have air-conditioning, _____

4 If we didn't have cars, _____

B Match the beginnings and endings of the second conditional sentences.

1 If Salah had lots of money,

2 Jamal would start his own business.

3 If Jamal made lots of money from his business,

4 If I was Salah's friend,

5 Salah would live in Jamal's house.

a his house would have a swimming pool.

b If Jamal went abroad to work,

c he would go on holiday around the world.

d he would take me on holiday too.

e If he had lots of money,

Lesson 5: The Fastest Living Things

A Are these sentences about the text true (T) or false (F)?

1 Falcons can move faster than any other living thing. ☐

2 Before falconry, the Bedouins used to eat a lot of meat. ☐

3 The Bedouins enjoyed the food that falcons caught for them. ☐

4 Falconry used to be just a sport. ☐

5 There could soon be no rare birds because of falconry. ☐

B Study the explanation. Then choose the best answers to complete the sentences.

Reading skill: understanding inferences

An inference is something that we understand from a text, although the text does not say it.

Example:
Text: He has twelve falcons, five cars and three houses.
Inference: He is rich.

1 Paragraph 1: The writer thinks that falcons are _____ to watch.

a interesting b exciting c frightening

2 Paragraph 2: The Bedouins were _____ with their diet before falconry.

a happy b unhappy c pleased

3 Paragraph 3: Falconry today is _____.

a more exciting b more comfortable c less exciting, but more comfortable

C Study this extract from the text about falconry and complete the sentences below.

The Bedouins lived mostly on dates, milk and bread because it was difficult to catch animals and birds. Then they learned how to catch falcons. Soon, the Bedouins were eating meat their falcons caught for them.

1 they is the _____ of the sentence. It stands in place of _____.

2 them is the _____ of the sentence. It stands in place of _____.

3 their is a possessive adjective; it stands in place of _____.

D Now complete this table.

subject pronoun	object pronoun	possessive adjective
I	me	_____
you	you	_____
he	him	_____
she	her	_____
it	it	_____
we	us	_____
they	them	_____

E Read and complete this conversation with words from the table.

Ahmad: Othman, can you lend me _____[1] camera, please? We have a class project and _____[2] teacher wants _____[3] to take photos of wildlife.

[Othman gives Ahmad _____[4] camera.]

Othman: Yes, _____[5] can borrow _____[6] camera, but carry _____[7] in _____[8] case. Then it won't get broken if _____[9] drop _____[10].

Ahmad: _____[11] needn't worry, Othman. _____[12] 'll use the case.

Othman: I'll need it back on Thursday evening. My aunt and uncle from Egypt and _____[13] children will be visiting _____[14] on Friday. My mother doesn't see _____[15] brother very often and _____[16] wants _____[17] to take photos of the whole family.

Ahmad: Don't worry. I'll bring it back on Thursday.

Lesson 6: Do you care about wildlife?

A Complete the information about the parts of a questionnaire. Use these words:

answers	instructions	points	questions
scores	situations	title	topic

1 The title tells us the questionnaire's _____.

2 The introduction explains the _____.

It tells us what we will learn if we answer the _____

It also gives _____.

3 The questions ask what we would do in five _____.

They give three possible _____.

4 The final part tells us how to give _____ and explains the meaning of the possible _____.

B Write these sentences with punctuation.

1 what would you do if you saw a snake

2 if I was going to a wild place I would tell my father first

3 if you were bitten by an animal what would you do

_____

4 would you touch a shellfish if you saw one underwater

Lesson 7: Different Animals

The present passive

Use the passive when you don't know who performed the action, or when the action is more important than who did it.

- Where can the sandviper be found? (Where the sandviper is found is important, but the person who found it is not.)
- My tools have been stolen. (We don't know who stole them.)

Use by when you want to say who did the action.

- Our petroleum products are bought by many countries.

Form the passive with the verb be + past participle.

The sandviper can be found in hot, dry countries. (present simple passive)

A Match the beginnings and endings of the passive sentences.

1	Bats	can they be found?
2	A new species	can be frightened of humans.
3	Snakes	can be killed if you are bitten by a snake.
4	You	can be found in deserts.
5	Where	can be seen at night.

Ahmed as a child ☐

Ahmed's life story

Ahmed lived in a small village in the south of Libya when he was a child. He loved catching birds and he often went out to catch birds with his father. From an early age, he was interested in animals. He was forever asking questions about animals, for example, 'Why do flies have wings?' and 'Why do fish live in the sea?' His father had goats and chickens and Ahmed liked to look after them. He talked to them as if they were friends. His brothers used to laugh at him.

When he went to school, Ahmed learned to read quickly. He liked reading and he was always asking his father for books. He did not like television, so he spent a lot of time reading. He learnt that there were lots of different animals in other countries.

In 1990, Ahmed's father got a new job and the family moved to Tripoli. Life was very different in the city. Ahmed thought he would miss the village, but he soon found that there was a lot to do for a 16-year-old boy.

One day, at the mall, he met a French boy called Pierre. Ahmed learned to speak some French with him. He also learned about France. The boys used to talk about what they wanted to do when they left school. One day, Ahmed made a big decision. He said 'I think I'll be a zoologist. Then I can study animals in different countries.'

When Ahmed left school, he moved from his village and went to live in Egypt, where he studied zoology at Cairo University. Now he is a well-known zoologist. He works in France and he is writing a book about animals in Africa.

B Mark the sentences true (T) or false (F).

1 Ahmed was not interested in animals until he went to school. ☐
2 He found out about animals from television. ☐
3 He moved to Tripoli when he was 17. ☐
4 Pierre helped Ahmed learn French. ☐

SPORTS STAR ARRIVES IN CAIRO

Report by Hussan Mustafa

Wissam Taha, the famous footballer, arrived in Cairo yesterday for a short visit.

He spoke to reporters at the airport. He said: 'I'm very happy to be in this beautiful country. I might play for an Egyptian club in the future.'

He then went to the television studio. He spoke to Mohammed Fuad about his life and his hopes for the future.

He visited the offices of the Egyptian Football Association for lunch. He talked to some famous Egyptian footballers about football in the Arab World.

In the afternoon, he went to the main football stadium. He taught football skills to a group of young footballers. They were the winners of a sports competition earlier in the year.

In the evening he went back to the airport. He took a plane to Libya.

POLICE FIND GIRL AFTER THREE HOURS

Report by Ibrahim Ali

Reem Kamal went missing during a family shopping trip to the shopping mall yesterday afternoon. She was shopping with her mother and father and her two sisters.

It all started at 4.15 p.m. 'One minute she was there and the next minute she was gone,' said her mother, Huda. 'We looked everywhere for her.'

Huda told the security guards. They put out a message, but nobody found her. 'I wasn't worried at first,' said Salim, one of the guards. 'Children go missing all the time, but they always turn up after a few minutes.'

The guards called the police. 'We searched the mall for three hours,' said Police Inspector Raad, 'but we didn't find her.'

Then Policewoman Amna Ibrahim heard a noise. 'It was coming from a large cleaning cupboard,' she said. 'I tried to open the cupboard, but it was locked.' She called Salim and he unlocked the door. Reem was inside.

'I went through the door because I thought it was the toilet,' Reem told our reporter. 'The door closed behind me and I couldn't open it. I shouted, but nobody could hear me.'

Reem Kamal was home with her family last night. 'I will always tell my mother where I am going in future,' she said.
